

A guide to savings for Medicare Beneficiaries

Programs and resources that can help you get the care you need

Get help with your expenses

If you're living on a fixed income, you know that making ends meet can sometimes be a challenge. However, you don't have to settle for less when it comes to your health.

As a Medicare beneficiary, you may be eligible for a variety of public benefits and other assistance programs to help you manage your health care expenses and make the most of your limited resources. This brochure can help you take full advantage of all the resources at your disposal. Learn about the range of programs available, which programs you qualify for, and how to apply for the benefits offered.

Page 24 of this booklet provides contact information for the relevant agencies and organizations in case you want additional details about any of these programs.

Medical and prescription programs

PACE, PACENET, and PACE Plus Programs

What the programs cover:

The Pharmaceutical Assistance Contract for the Elderly (PACE), PACE Needs Enhancement Tier (PACENET), and PACE Plus programs offer coverage for generic and brand-name drugs with minimal copayment for each covered prescription filled.

Who is eligible:

Pennsylvania residents (for at least 90 consecutive days) who are age 65 or older are eligible. You can apply for these programs even if you have health insurance coverage or if the prescription coverage you have is limited.

If you are applying for PACE benefits, you must meet the following income limits:

- Single person: total income must be $14,500 or less
- Married couple: combined total income must be $17,700 or less

If you are applying for PACENET benefits, you must meet the following income limits:

- Single person: total income must be between $14,500 and $23,500
- Married couple: combined total income must be between $17,700 and $31,500

How to apply:

Applications for PACE, PACENET, and PACE Plus are available at Area Agencies on Aging (see page 24 for locations), pharmacies, and legislators' offices. You may obtain an application at <https://pacecares.magellanhealth.com> or by calling 1-800-225-7223. Hearing-impaired callers using a TDD (Telecommunication Device for the Deaf) should call 1-800-222-9004.

Important information regarding the PACE Outreach program

The PACE program partners with Benefits Data Trust (BDT) to conduct outreach and enrollment services. BDT assists PACE in identifying older Pennsylvanians who may qualify for the program and helps individuals complete the program's enrollment application.

BDT conducts outreach services through direct mail and outbound calls. Benefits outreach specialists from its Application Center talk individuals through the application process. They can also submit applications to the program on the individual's behalf.

BDT is located in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, but offers a toll-free number for individuals to call with questions, 1-866-712-2060.

Pennsylvania Patient Assistance Program Clearinghouse (PA PAP)

What the program covers:

This program may be able to help you apply for prescription assistance through various programs. If you do not qualify for any state or federally funded prescription assistance programs, then this program may help you reduce the cost of your medications.

Who is eligible:

Pennsylvania residents who:

- not a participant in any other state or federally funded prescription program
- not have other prescription insurance; however, assistance during the Medicare Part D coverage gap may be available

How to apply:

For more information about this program, call 1-800-955-0989.

Extra Help with Medicare Part D Prescription Drug Coverage

What the program covers:

Extra Help is a program for Medicare beneficiaries to assist in paying their monthly premiums, annual deductibles, and prescription copayments related to their Medicare Part D prescription drug coverage plan.

Who is eligible:

- Applicants must be receiving Medicare.
- Beneficiaries must have limited resources and income.
- Individuals must reside in one of the 50 states or District of Columbia.

How to apply:

- Apply online at: www.ssa.gov/prescriptionhelp
- Call Social Security at 1-800-772-1213 (TTY: 1-800-325-0778) to apply or request an application.
- Apply at your local Social Security office (see pages 32-33 for locations).

Medical Assistance Programs (Medicaid)

What the programs cover:

State Medical Assistance Programs (Medicaid) are provided by the Department of Public Welfare. Medical Assistance programs help to cover the cost of health care services not covered by Medicare. Medical Assistance benefits can include prescription and over-the-counter drugs. Medical Assistance also covers copayments and deductibles.

Who is eligible:

Benefits are available to eligible low-income individuals regardless of age. You can qualify to receive Medical Assistance benefits even if you also receive Medicare benefits at the same time or have health insurance through a Medicare Advantage plan.

Visit compass.state.pa.us for detailed information about eligibility requirements. You may also call or visit your local County Assistance Office (see page 30 for locations) for more information.

How to apply:

- File an application at your local County Assistance Office (see page 30 for a list of offices).
- Apply for benefits online using COMPASS, Pennsylvania's online resource for assistance programs at compass.state.pa.us
- Call COMPASS at 1-800-692-7462.

Medicare Savings Programs

What the programs cover:

Depending on which program you qualify for, a Medicare Savings program will pay your Medicare premiums for Parts A and B, your Medicare deductibles, your Medicare copayments, or a combination of these expenses. The Medicare Savings programs are offered by the Department of Public Welfare and are known in Pennsylvania as Healthy Horizons. There are three types of Healthy Horizons Medicare Savings programs available.

Who is eligible:

Elderly or disabled Medicare beneficiaries who do not qualify for Medical Assistance (Medicaid) because their income, assets, or both exceed the eligibility requirements may qualify for the Medicare Savings programs. Income and asset eligibility limits for the Medicare Savings programs vary for each of the three programs available.

How to apply:

Call your local County Assistance Office (see page 30 for locations) or call COMPASS at 1-800-692-7462.

Veterans Administration Benefits

What the program covers:

The Veterans Health Administration (VHA) provides the following medical, surgical, and rehabilitative care to eligible veterans:

Basic care:

- Outpatient and inpatient hospital, medical, surgical, and mental health care, including substance abuse treatment
- Prescription drugs, including over-the-counter drugs, and medical and surgical supplies available under the Department of Veterans Affairs' (VA) national formulary system
- Emergency care for a service-connected disability in non-VA facilities under certain conditions
- Additional health care services through the Medicare benefits package

Preventive care:

- Periodic medical exams
- Health education, including nutrition education
- Maintenance of drug use profiles, drug monitoring, and drug use education
- Mental health and substance abuse preventive services

Who is eligible:

All veterans are potentially eligible to receive benefits, and eligibility is not just for those who served in combat. Visit the VA website at va.gov/healthbenefits for a list of other groups that may qualify for benefits.

Some of the basic factors that go into determining eligibility for VA health benefits include the following:

- Veterans who served in active duty with the Army, Navy, Air Force, Marines, or Coast Guard (or Merchant Marines during World War II)
- Veterans who were discharged honorably
- Reservists and National Guard members who were called to active duty by a Federal Executive Order may qualify for benefits

- Returning service members, including Reservists and National Guard members who served on active duty in a theater-of-combat operation, have special eligibility for hospital care, medical services, and nursing home care for five years following discharge from active duty

Visit the VA website at va.gov/healthbenefits or contact one of the VA locations listed in the Contact Information and Resources section at the back of this booklet to confirm your eligibility.

How to apply:

Complete and submit VA Form 10-10EZ. You can get the form in two ways:

- Online at 1010ez.med.va.gov/sec/vha/1010ez
- By calling 1-877-222-VETS (8387)
Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 8 p.m.

If you need help completing the form, call 1-877-222-VETS (8387) Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 8 p.m.

The Department of Veterans Affairs — Aid and Attendance Benefit

Wartime veterans and their surviving spouses, 65 years and older, may be entitled to a tax-free benefit called Aid and Attendance. The benefit was designed to provide financial assistance to help offset the cost of long-term care in an assisted-living facility or for in-home care.

What does it mean to you?

- With the benefit in hand, you are able to afford the care you need.
- You never have to pay it back, and it is completely tax-free.
- Like Social Security, this pension is dependable and is paid directly to you by the U.S. Department of the Treasury.
- This benefit can be used for in-home care, board and care homes, residential care homes, and for assisted-living communities.

How American Veterans Aid will work with you:

- The organization provides a comprehensive long-term care consultation for a reasonable fee.
- A VA-accredited claims agent provides a Letter of Determination.
- Applicants receive a detailed instructions pack.
- VA application forms are prepared and submitted to the VA at no charge by the claims agent.

For more information, call 1-877-427-8065 or visit www.americanveteransaid.com.

Utility and energy assistance

Pennsylvania Low-Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP)

What the program covers:

LIHEAP is a federally funded program that helps low-income Pennsylvanians pay their heating bills by providing home heating energy assistance and crisis grants. LIHEAP is administered by the Pennsylvania Department of Public Welfare. You need not have an unpaid bill to receive home heating energy assistance. Cash grants help pay heating bills. Crisis grants help households who have an emergency and are in immediate danger of being without heat.

Who is eligible:

- You may qualify for a LIHEAP grant if your income meets certain income guidelines.
- You will receive a written notice that tells you if you qualify and the amount of your grant.

How to apply:

- Apply online at compass.state.pa.us.
- Request an application by calling the statewide LIHEAP hotline at 1-866-857-7095 or TDD for the hearing-impaired at 711.
- Applications are also available at local County Assistance offices.

PECO's Universal Service programs

PECO's Customer Assistance Program (CAP)

What the program covers:

- Reduced monthly payments: Receive a discount on a portion of the energy used, depending on the household income level.
- Freezing past debt: When you enroll in CAP, past debt will be frozen. If your CAP payments are made on time and in full, PECO will not make collections on past-due amounts and no fees will be applied against the debt.
- Forgiving past debt: If your CAP bill is paid on time and in full for six consecutive months, the entire outstanding debt will be forgiven.

Who is eligible:

- Households with income at or below 150 percent of the federal poverty income guidelines
- Those who have applied for LIHEAP and receive LIURP services from PECO

How to apply:

- Contact PECO to apply for CAP by calling 1-800-774-7040.

PECO's Low-Income Usage Reduction Program (LIURP)

What the program covers:

- LIURP helps reduce household electric and gas use, resulting in lower bills.
- Free home energy usage reviews, education on how to reduce energy use, and installation of weatherization measures.

Who is eligible:

- You qualify if you are a high energy user and you have a household income at or below 200 percent of the federal poverty income guidelines OR your household income is between 150 and 200 percent of the federal poverty income guidelines and you have a past-due balance.
- PECO also requires that you use a certain amount of energy before you can qualify for the program. If you have electric heat, you must use at least 1,400 kWh monthly. If you have gas heat, you must use at least 50 ccf or greater monthly.

How to apply:

Call 1-800-675-0222 to see if you are eligible. You can apply for LIURP services year-round.

Resources for Philadelphia County residents

Energy Coordinating Agency (ECA)

What the program covers:

The ECA is a nonprofit corporation that coordinates and provides energy services, including conservation, heater repairs, energy education, and bill payment assistance.

What the program covers:

The Philadelphia Water Department (PWD) administers the Homeowner's Emergency Loan Program, an interest-free, installment-payment loan program to eligible water customers who have been issued a Notice of Violation/Defect for a defective water or drainage system.

Who is eligible:

- The applicant must be the homeowner of record and reside at the property.
- The property must have received a Notice of Defect (NOD) issued by PWD.
- The property must be listed as a residential or mixed residential/commercial property.
- The property must have an operable water meter.
- The property cannot have more than four (4) units.
- The water bill and/or any payment agreements must be current.

How to apply:

To apply for a loan or to find out more about HELP, call 215-685-4901.

Utility Emergency Services Fund (UESF)

What the program covers:

UESF is a nonprofit organization that provides cash assistance to income-eligible households, preventing utility shutoffs for water, gas, and electric. Since 1983, UESF has provided grants to families in need. If eligible, UESF will give a household up to $1,000 in aid for a utility account that is shut off or in danger of shutoff. The grant must reduce the bill to zero.

Who is eligible:

- Applicant must be a Philadelphia resident.
- The utility bill must be in the applicant's name, or he or she must show proof of responsibility for the bill.
- Applicant must not have received a UESF grant in the past 24 months.
- Applicant must have applied for LIHEAP Cash and Crisis when the programs are open.

Foster Grandparent/Volunteer Program

The Foster Grandparent Program (FGP) provides volunteer opportunities for people age 55 and older to serve disadvantaged or disabled youth by tutoring those who need assistance with reading. Volunteers help the young achieve personal independence and self-confidence so they can learn to overcome their problems and become productive members of society. They help address critical community needs.

Who is eligible:

Foster grandparent volunteers must be:

- Age 55 and older
- Able to serve 15 hours a week
- Meet certain income eligibility guidelines

What is covered:

- Modest tax-free stipends to offset the cost of volunteering
- Reimbursement for transportation, some meals during service, an annual physical, and accident and liability insurance while on duty
- Regular training sessions

Montgomery County Community College

Senior Citizen Registration

Residents of Montgomery County who are 65 years or older have the opportunity to enroll in credit courses at Montgomery County Community College, paying only the fees, books, and supply costs associated with the course(s). Tuition is waived. Non-credit courses do not apply to this benefit. For this reason, senior citizens have specific registration dates for each semester. Please view the Registration Calendar online at mc3.edu/adm-fin-aid/registration or contact the campus listed below. Senior citizens can register after 2 p.m. on the specified date listed for the term. There are different dates for each term.

If you are a first-time senior citizen student seeking a degree, you will need to complete the online application. If you do not intend to pursue a degree, you will need to apply as a guest student. If you would like to apply in person, please go to the Enrollment Services Department at Central Campus in Blue Bell or West Campus in Pottstown. Students wishing to obtain a degree must comply with all prerequisite and placement testing course requirements, and they may submit official college/high school transcripts to show course prerequisite completion.
